A fundraising event of true giving. A success!
This gathering of souls of good will was indeed inestimable treasure.

As volunteer president of the International Association for the Rights of Needy and Suffering Children (IARNSC), I must give the honours due to the Hadxaifong Sports and Soccer Team (and to all the Laotian community that accompanied them) for having built up the greatest thing in this world: human solidarity.

Personally I permit myself to place you among the ranks of those who are greatest in this world, those who offer the gift of self.

The fundraising event of April 4th 2015 was a moving gathering which united all the Laotian associations and organisations of Quebec and Ontario.

For such an encounter, the Spirit of God must have been present to enable, once again, so many people, not just Laotians, to come together.

Yes, the Spirit moves in us for all that is just and good.

The recognition of our brothers and sisters in need brings out our inherent goodness and enables us to offer the gift of self, in accord with our conscience.

How marvellous were all these donators that made this evening so memorable: the abundant spread of delicious food accompanied by music and songs. A souvenir never to be forgotten.

For myself, conscious of human suffering and acting in consequence, I feel honoured to have been part of this action that came from the kindness that is within us and from our duty towards humanity.

Once again you, Laotians, have risen to the task. You lead us and inspire us to reach ever higher to receive our baptism of the heart. Baptism that leads us towards God, to being one with God.

That's it. I wanted to let you know that near to you I do not feel alone, no longer alone.

To follow the path we have chosen is to express our faith in what we know in our hearts.

Mary-Jacques Cambay
Volunteer President (IARNSC)

P.S.

The supremacy of the soul:

Never forget to always promote and prioritize human actions of a social and spiritual nature: to retain within ourselves the knowledge that the gift of self, in communion with our hearts, is the ambassador of eternal life.
